To Whom It May Concern,

It gives me great pleasure to recommend Daniel Michael Crane to you as an actor, singer, and professional.

Daniel has studied with me since the Spring of 2014 and at all times has displayed boundless enthusiasm and ability. Daniel has a magnificent voice which he can use to great advantage in musical theatre, but he also has the rare talent of powerful stage presence and strong believability as a fine actor. He takes joy in putting as much of himself as possible into delivering his very best as a brilliant skilled singer and invested sensitive actor. Along with this, Daniel has an energy and focus that inspires audiences to respond to him on a heartfelt level. He is consistent and always responsive, taking direction eagerly and making the creative process a positive experience.

I must also mention that Daniel is an especially giving team player, always generous in sustaining fellow performers with his winning and upbeat manner, making him a great inspiration and role model.

I look forward to the opportunity of working with Daniel many more times in the future and he is certainly a tremendous asset to any production lucky enough to include him in the cast.
