

Daniel Michael Crane (Singer, Actor, Emcee, DJ):

Daniel Michael Crane was born in Medellin Colombia (South America) on May 3rd 1990. Both he and his twin sister were adopted as babies by American parents. His parents, Alan and Lucille have been very supportive of his performing arts endeavors since then; from his early performing days on Long Island (where he grew up), to cabaret/lounge/off-Broadway performances in NYC, all the way down yonder to East TN & the Carolinas. Daniel received his first professional NYC credit at age 19 while still finishing up studies at Suffolk County Community College. Additionally, he trained under world renowned voice physiologist and vocal coach Patrick Michael Wickham in NYC for over 10 years as well as under Burton Mazzone & former Christine in Broadway's "Phantom of the Opera"; Marie Danvers. Daniel has performed in the south since 2013. Daniel's repertoire is deep. From doo wop & oldies, to Billy Joel/Barry Manilow/Elton, Elvis, Bobby Darin, and Sinatra all the way to Broadway, Country, and Motown! He is a strong believer in "keeping the classics alive". His performing arts travels have also brought him to places like New Jersey, Boston, California, and Boston.

When not singing, Daniel occasionally emcees and DJ's events (sometimes, the same ones he is singing at). When time allows, he will also act in film & television, having been a proud member of the union SAG-AFTRA since 2013. In his free time, Daniel will sing for several worthy causes having to do with the elderly, animals, cancer, gun rights, veterans (prolific National Anthem for several high profile organizations), and the homeless. He is a firm believer that no matter how big or prestigious you think you are, singing for these facilities and causes is never below anyone. Daniel is also a retired firefighter, and supportive of law enforcement, emergency response, and emergency medical personnel. He also enjoys hiking, baseball, and going to see local bands/performers. He would like to thank his family, friends, loved ones, and coaches for their continued support and not giving up on him! – "If You Leap, The Net Will Appear".
