

I write to recommend Daniel Michael Crane. He has a first-class voice, is a great actor, and a really great singer who blows people away with his voice when performing. He is a clutch performer who does great work before an audience. His memory is excellent and he learns music quickly. Daniel also has great and unusual diversity, being able to sing equally well a pop work, Broadway ballad or operatic work. He is fun to work with, dedicated, and very loyal. Yes, hire him! I've worked with him for years, recorded with him, gone on stage with him. Listen to his voice on my website, which has many recordings by Daniel singing songs from musicals I composed (www.NewBroadwayMusicals.com). If you want a truly gifted guy who will work very hard for you, yes, Daniel Michael Crane is your man!

Cordially, James Behr

Composer, Juilliard M.M. & B.M/

Professor, Manhattan College

www.JamesBehr.com

www.NewBroadwayMusicals.com